

OPCAT visit to the Tatabánya Police Department and the Tatai Police Department
(7 February 2024)

On 07 February 2024, the staff of the Commissioner for Fundamental Rights of the National Preventive Mechanism OPCAT paid an unannounced visit to the Tatabánya Police Precinct and the Tatai Police Precinct.

The preparation room of the Tatabánya Police Station and the lock-up of the prisoner transport vehicle

The purpose of the visit was to examine the treatment of the detainees and the conditions of detention. Members of the visiting team visited the premises of the police buildings, their furnishings and equipment, the vehicles used to transport detainees, inspected relevant documents and interviewed the management and staff.

The visiting team included:

- Dr. Dóra Deák-Kondákor, lawyer
- Dr. Norbert Mézes, lawyer

The person deprived of his/her personal liberty at the time of the visit was not present in the places of detention.

The building of the Tata Police Station and the preparation room

A report on the visit will be drawn up by the national preventive mechanism.